Breisgauer Bote,

Verkündigungs-Blatt

für die

Großherzogl. Amtsbezirke Breisach, Emmendingen, Stadt- u. Landamt Freiburg, Hornberg, Kenzingen, Staufen, St. Blasien, Triberg und Waldkirch.

Dieses Blatt erscheint wöchentlich 3mal, nämlich Dienstags, Donnerstags und Samstags, jeweils ein Bogen in Folio nebst einer Beilage amtliche und Privat-Anzeigen enthaltend. Zu letztern dürfte dieß Blatt sich besonders eignen, da dasselbe in sämtlichen Gemeinden der oben benannten Ämter gehalten wird, und jeder Anzeige schon dadurch allein eine bedeutende Verbreitung zugesichert ist.

Der Preis dieser Zeitung für die beiden Monate November und December ist für Freiburg und durch die Boten in der Verlagsbehandlung bezogen 35 fr., durch die Post für das ganze Land nebst Postaufschlag 40 fr. Sämtliche Großherzogl. Postämter des Landes nehmen hierauf Bestellung an.

Ueber die Tendenz des Blattes gibt nachfolgendes Programm ausführlich Kunde.

Zugleich erlauben wir uns an alle Freunde gesellschaftlicher Ordnung und fortschreitender Volksbildung die Bitte zu richten, uns mit Mittheilungen aus ihrem Wirkungs- u. Erfahrungskreise zu unterstützen. Auch werden uns leitende Aufsätze und andere geeignete Beiträge stets willkommen sein, da eine Vielseitigkeit der Ansichten bei Besprechung der politischen und socialen Verhältnisse unseres Vaterlandes für die Sache selbst stets förderlich sind.

Wir können die Versicherung geben, daß es uns gelang, nicht nur einen dieser schwierigen Aufgabe vollkommen gewachsenen Redakteur, sondern nebstdem noch eine bedeutende Anzahl ausgezeichnete Mitarbeiter für unser Blatt zu gewinnen.

Freiburg den 20. October 1849.

Fr. Wagner'sche Buchhandlung.

The undersigned publishing and bookselling house issues from 1 November onwards: Breisgauer Bote. Intelligencer for the Grandducal districts of Breisach, Emmendingen, City and Rural district of Freiburg, Hornberg, Kenzingen, Staufen, St. Blasien, Triberg and Waldkirch.

This paper is published three times a week, namely on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, each time one folio size (folded) page with an attachment for official and private advertisements. The paper is apt for such advertisements because it is subscribed by all communities in the above-mentioned districts, and just by this fact, every advertisement will certainly be widespread.

The price for this paper for the months of November and December is 35 Kreuzer for subscribers living in Freiburg and for those who have it picked up by messengers in the publishing house. For the rest of the country the paper costs 40 Kreuzer, plus postage. All Grandducal post offices accept orders for it.

Along with this, we are so free to direct the request to all friends of legal order and proceeding popular education to support us by reports from their radius of action and their experiences. We will always welcome leading essays and other apt articles, as a plentitude of opinions does support the discussion of the political and social conditions in our fatherland.

We are assuring that we have succeeded in finding an editor who does not only match for such a difficult task, but also in attracting a considerable number of excellent authors.

Freiburg, 20 October 1849. Fr. Wagner, bookstore.

FOREWORD

1. The making of this book

I first made the decision to collect the names in this volume almost 30 years ago, at a time when neither the Internet nor public databases of emigrants existed. Many American and some Australian genealogists had been searching for the exact town or village of origin of their ancestors who were known only to have come from the Grandduchy of Baden. Those genealogists wrote to societies, archives and the parish offices in the town of Baden-Baden, but could not get help without knowing a more exact place-name. Conversely, the old gazettes and newspapers in Baden are full of public notifications and advertisements concerning emigrants. These advertisements are hard to find, due to the fact that these papers have no complete indexes. Some of them just have annual indexes for the names of the quoted persons.

So I started to look through the newspapers which served as a collection and kind of gazette of public notices in the Breisgau region. I then copied all entries about emigrants and absent persons into lists, destined eventually to be put together into a database. This project kept me busy from 1986 to 1989; and with the help of this documented data I was able to discover the origins of quite a few emigrants.

Upon completion, it was clear to me that this material should be made accessible to a wider audience, and it is this which has led to the book now before you. The aforementioned database was initially only intended to provide clues to the original home community of the persons mentioned in them and to provide links to additional entries about these persons. Therefore, I had in most cases not noted whether it was a summons to a military person or his sentence or condemnation for absence, and the same for missing persons. Such details were partially added in afterwards upon further study. As a general rule, the lists in this book are to be best considered as hints and springboards to primary sources where further details may be unearthed. The actual advertisements may include additional details such as personal descriptions of wanted men. Even more information may be found in case files which, it may be hoped, have survived in the archives.

The following volumes are in preparation:

1. The Breisgau region

with the districts of Breisach, Emmendingen, Ettenheim, Freiburg, Hornberg (until 1857)<sup>1</sup>, Kenzingen, Staufen, St. Blasien (until 1844), Triberg (until 1858) and Waldkirch.

2. The Odenwald and Bauland regions

with the districts of Adelsheim, Boxberg, Buchen, Eberbach, Gerlachsheim, Krautheim, Mosbach, Tauberbischofsheim, Walldürn and Wertheim

3. The Ortenau region

with the districts of Achern (until 1864), Gengenbach, Haslach, Lahr, Oberkirch, Offenburg, Rheinbischofsheim and Wolfach.

4. The area around Rastatt with the districts of Achern (from 1865), Baden-Baden, Bühl, Ettlingen, Gernsbach and Rastatt.

For all of these regions, all information in newspapers up to 1871 has been extracted. The imperial German law of 1 June 1870 concerning the purchase and loss of citizenship only authorised the authorities to prohibit emigration for military reasons. Therefore, the announcement of clearing of debts prior to emigration had to be omitted because this was no longer considered to be a valid obstacle for leaving the country. The remaining types of announcements (summons to missing heirs, search for absent draftees, and others) are assumed to be largely found in the Karlsruher Zeitung newspaper after 1871.

2. Public announcements by district authorities in Baden

By the late eighteenth century, absent persons were sought after via advertisements in newspapers and intelligencers in the Margraviate of Baden-Durlach<sup>2</sup>. Soon after 1800, this turned into a sophisticated system of public notifications by low-ech-

VORWORT

1. Die Vorgeschichte dieses Buches.

Der Entschluß, die hier enthaltenen Namen zu sammeln, liegt fast 30 Jahre zurück. Damals gab es noch kein Internet und keine öffentlich zugänglichen Datenbanken von Auswanderern. Viele amerikanische und einige australische Genealogen suchten die genaue Herkunft ihrer Vorfahren, von denen nur bekannt war, daß sie aus Baden kamen. Diese Genealogen schrieben nun an Vereine, Archive und die Pfarrämter in Baden-Baden, wo man ihnen ohne genaue Kenntnis des Ortes aber nicht helfen konnte. Andererseits sind die badischen Amtsblätter und Zeitungen voll von amtlichen Bekanntmachungen über Auswanderer. Diese Anzeigen sind allerdings schwer zu finden, weil es teils gar keine, teils nur jährliche Register gibt.

So fing ich an, die in Freiburg als Verkündigungsblatt dienende Zeitung nach Anzeigen über Auswanderer durchzusehen und diese in Listen zu notieren. Diese Listen wurden danach in eine Datenbank eingetippt. Die Arbeit dauerte von 1986 bis 1989, und anhand der Daten konnte ich die Herkunft so manchen Auswanderers ermitteln.

Schließlich erschien es mir am besten, den gesamten Datenbestand einem größeren Publikum zugänglich zu machen, und so kam schließlich das vorliegende Buch zustande. Die damalige Datenbank sollte ja nur als Fingerzeig dienen, aus welchem Ort jemand stammte, und das Auffinden weiterer Einträge über einen Auswanderer ermöglichen. So wurde in der Regel nicht erfaßt, ob es sich um einen Aufruf an eine Militärperson handelte oder um deren Verurteilung wegen Abwesenheit, ebenso bei Verschollenen. Teils habe ich diese Angaben nachgetragen. Insgesamt sollen die hier veröffentlichten Listen aber nur als Hinweise verstanden werden, an welcher Stelle etwas zu finden ist. Die eigentlichen Anzeigen können durchaus noch weitere Angaben enthalten und die zugehörigen Akten – falls sie noch existieren – erst recht.

Folgende Bände über badische Auswanderer sind nun erhältlich:

1. Der Breisgau mit den Amtsbezirken Breisach, Emmendingen, Ettenheim, Freiburg, Hornberg (bis 1857), Kenzingen, Staufen, St. Blasien (bis 1844), Triberg (bis 1858) und Waldkirch.
2. Odenwald und Bauland mit den Amtsbezirken Adelsheim, Boxberg, Buchen, Eberbach, Gerlachsheim, Krautheim, Mosbach, Tauberbischofsheim, Walldürn und Wertheim
3. Die Ortenau mit den Amtsbezirken Achern (bis 1864), Gengenbach, Haslach, Lahr, Oberkirch, Offenburg, Rheinbischofsheim und Wolfach.
4. Die Gegend um Rastatt mit den Amtsbezirken Achern (ab 1865), Baden-Baden, Bühl, Ettlingen, Gernsbach und Rastatt..

Ausgewertet wurden jeweils die noch existierenden Zeitungen von Beginn bis zum Ende des Jahres 1871. Das Reichsgesetz vom 1. Juni 1870 über den Erwerb und den Verlust der Bundes- und Staatsangehörigkeit ließ nur noch militärische Hindernisse gegen eine Auswanderung zu, die Vornahme einer Schuldenliquidation und deren öffentliche Ankündigung mußten deswegen unterbleiben, da sie fortan als unzulässige Behinderung eines Wegzugs galten. Die noch verbleibenden Bekanntmachungen (Erbenaufrufe, Fahndung nach Wehrpflichtigen und anderes) dürften ab 1872 großenteils in der Karlsruher Zeitung zu finden sein.

Die Listen erscheinen ganz bewußt in englischer Sprache, weil diese von der Mehrzahl der Leser verstanden wird, jedenfalls eher als deutsch. Außerdem können deutsche Interessenten die Anzeigen ja im Original nachlesen.

2. Das badische niedergerichtliche Verkündigungswesen.

In der Markgrafschaft Baden-Durlach wurden Abwesende bereits im späten 18. Jhd. durch Anzeigen in Zeitungen und Intelligenzblättern gesucht<sup>13</sup>. Bald nach 1800 entwickelte sich daraus ein ausgeklügeltes System niedergerichtlicher Bekanntmachungen. Als Organe dienten im Großherzogtum Baden folgende Amtsblätter<sup>14</sup>:

1803 – 1808 Provinzialblatt der badischen Pfalzgrafschaft (Mannheim)

1808 – 1810 Großherzoglich Badisches Niederrheinisches Provinzialblatt (Mannheim)
